THE HOWE MACHINE CO.'S SEWING MACHINES,
699 BROADWAY, NEW YORK.
These World-renowned Sewing Machines were awarded the Highest Premium at the World's Fair, in London, and six First Premiums at the N. Y. State Fair of 1865, and are celebrated for doing the best work, using a much smaller needle for the same thread than any other machine, and by the introduction of the most approved machinery, we are now able to supply the very best machines in the world.
These machines are made at our new and spacious Factory at Bridgeport, Conn., under the immediate supervision of the President of the Company, ELIAS HOWE, Jr., the original inventor of the Sewing Machine.
They are adapted to all kinds of Family Sewing, and to the use of Seamstresses, Dress Makers, Tailors, Manufacturers of Shirts, Collars, Skirts, Cloaks, Mantillas, Clothing, Hats, Caps, Corsets, Boots, Shoes, Harness, Saddles, Linen Goods, Umbrellas, Parasols, etc. They work equally well upon silk, linen, cotton or woolen goods with silk, cotton or linen thread. They will seam, quilt, gather, hem, fell, cord, braid, bind and perform every species of sewing, making a beautiful and perfect stitch, alike on both sides of the article sewed.
The Stitch invented by Mr. HOWE, and made on this Machine, is the most popular and durable, and all Sewing Machines are subject to the principle invented by him. Send for Circulars.

SEWING MACHINES!
THE GROVER & BAKER.
THE BEST IN USE.—These Machines have become so well known that little need be said by way of recommendation. They have taken the first premium at all the late State Fairs, and are universally acanowledged to be the BEST in use by all who have tried them. The "Grover & Baker Stitch" and the "Shuttle Stitch" are points that have been attained by no other Machine. They are the only Machines that sew and embroider with perfection. These Machines are peculiarly adapted to family use. They are almost noiseless, sew directly from the spool without rewinding, and are simple in their construction. They are easy to manage, and can be worked by almost any child. Every family should have one. They never falter, they sew fine, and they sew money, and do their work better than it can be done by hand.
The undersigned having been appointed Agent for the above Machines, has established an Agency in Fairfield, Adams co., where he will always have on hand a supply. Persons wishing to buy will please call and examine for themselves.
☞Needles and Thread will also be supplied.

The Star and Sentinel.

MOTHER'S GRAVE.

BY GEORGE D. PRENTICE.

The trembling dew-drops fall
Upon the shutting flowers like souls at rest;
The stars shine gloriously, and all
Save me are blessed.

Mother! I love thy grave!
The violet, with its blossoms blue and mild,
Waves o'er thy head. When will it wave
Above thy child's?

'Tis a sweet flower; yet must
Its bright leaves to the morning tempest [bow?
Dear Mother, 'tis thine emblem—dust
Is on thy brow.

And I could love to die—
To leave untasted life's dark, bitter streams,
By thee, as first in childhood, lie,
And share thy dreams.

And I must linger here
To stain the plumage of my sinless years,
And mourn the hopes of childhood dear
With bitter tears.

Aye, I must linger here,
A lonely branch upon a withered tree,
Whose last frail leaf, untimely sere,
Went down with thee.

Oft from life's withered bower,
In still communion with the past, I turn,
And muse on thee, the only flower
In memory's urn.

And when the evening pale,
Bows like a mourner, on the dim, blue wave,
I stray to hear the night winds wail
Around thy grave.

Where is thy spirit flown?
I gaze above—thy look is imaged there—
I listen, and thy gentle tone
Is on the air.

O, come, while here I press
My brow upon thy grave, and in those mild
And thrilling tones of tenderness,
Bless, bless thy child!

THE MASTER'S TOUCH.

In the still air music lies unheard;
In the rough marble beauty lies unseen;
To wake the music and the beauty, needs
The master's touch, the sculptor's chisel [keen.
Great Master, touch us with Thy skilful [hand,
Let not the music that is in us die;
Great Sculptor, hew and polish us; nor let,
Hidden and lost, Thy form within us lie.

Spare not the stroke; do with us as thou [wilt;
Let there be naught unfurnished, broken, [marred;
Complete Thy purpose, that we may be- [come
Thy perfect image, O our God and Lord.

OUR THOUGHTLESS WORDS.

Reader, did you ever think how much a word can wound? Perhaps some sorrowing mortal is near you even now, thirsting in her heart for a single gentle word. Every heart knoweth its own bitterness, but how few of us ever sympathize in another's woe. We pass and repass the mourning, sorrowing one, and perhaps a few common-place words of condolence fall with a cold, unmeaning, lifeless expression from our lips, and we think our duty done: and often, very often, a smile of derision, an unkind word, and a rankling, festering wound is inflicted which burns the heart as long as life lasts.

Ah! how little do we think how our thoughtless words influence the destiny of others for time and eternity! A single harsh expression falls from our lips, which is forgotten by us almost as soon as uttered, and a mildew blight falls upon some heart, which had our words been fitly spoken, might have budded and blossomed in an eternity of happiness.

Then, reader, let your words be those of gentleness, and your actions ever kind. The human heart is easily touched, and from its hidden fountains will gush forth such a stream of gratitude and love, that you will never regret the effort you have made, nor forget to thank God for the good you have been the means of doing.

"A little word in kindness spoken,
A motion or a tear,
Has often soothed the heart that's broken,
And made a friend sincere."

THE BABY.—Welcome to the parents is the puny little struggler, strong in his weakness, his little arms more irresistible than the soldier's, his lips touched with persuasion which Chatham and Pericles in manhood had not.—The small despot asks so little that all nature and reason are on his side. His ignorance is more charming than all knowledge, and his little sins more bewitching than all virtue.—All day between his three or four sleeps he coos like a pigeon-house, sputters and spurs, and puts on faces of importance; and when he fasts, the little Pharisee fails not to sound his trumpet before him. Out of blocks, thread spools, cards and checkers he will build his pyramid with the gravity of Palladio. With an acoustic apparatus of whistle and rattle he explores the laws of sound. But chiefly like his senior countrymen, the young American studies new and speedier modes of transportation. Mistrusting the cunning of his small legs, he wishes to ride on the necks and shoulders of all flesh. The small enchanter nothing can withstand—no seniority of age, no gravity of character; uncles, aunts, cousins, grandsires, grandmas,—all fall an easy prey; he conforms to nobody, all conform to him, all caper and make mouths, and babble and chirrup to him. On the strongest shoulders he rides, and pulls the hair of laureled heads.—R. W. Emerson.

HELPING THE MINISTER.—"I am past usefulness," said an old lady to her minister; "the Lord spares my days but I can do no good now." "You are doing a great deal of good," said the minister. "You help me to preach every Sabbath." Of course she was very much surprised. Help her minister preach! "Why, how?" "In the first place," said he, "you are always in your seat at church, and that helps me. In the second place, you are always wide awake, looking right up into my face, and that helps me. In the third place, I often see tears running down your cheeks, and that helps me very much."

THAT was a beautiful idea in the mind of the little girl who, on beholding a rosebud, on the topmost stem of which the old rose was fading, whilst below and around it three beautiful crimson buds were just unfolding their charms at once, earnestly exclaimed to her brother: "See, Willie, those little buds have just awakened in time to kiss their mother before she dies."

SOCRATES, at an extreme age, learned to play on musical instruments. Dryden in his sixty-eighth year commenced the translation of the Iliad; and his most pleasing productions were written in his old age. Franklin did not fully commence his philosophical pursuits till he had reached his fiftieth year. We are never too old to learn.

THE DOCTOR'S LAST.

When we see the doctor's last we do not mean the length of his foot—we mean his last joke; nor do we mean by last that it is his joke in articulo mortis, for we hope he will live to joke a thousand years. We simply mean the latest or youngest of his facetiæ. A worthy Frenchman, who was very hoarse and troubled with a bad cough, went to Dr. Elder some time ago to consult him upon his maladies. Before he went, the Frenchman, whose knowledge of English was very imperfect, turned to his dictionary to see how cough was pronounced, and seeing that though was pronounced tho, he naturally concluded that cough was pronounced cow. To make assurance doubly sure, he looked and saw that the definition of cough was "malady in the chest," "a sort of bronchitis."

When he arrived at Dr. Elder's, the latter said:

"Well, monsieur, what is the matter with you?"

The worthy Frenchman replied:

"I have got one leetle hoarse and one bad cow."

"You've got a horse and a cow," said Elder.

"Ah! I suppose you want me to buy them."

"Mon Dieu! I vish I could sell 'em; they vil not let me sleep at de nights," said the Frenchman.

"Why don't you lock them up in the stable?" inquired the doctor.

The Frenchman was in despair.

"Ah, you no me understand," he cried clasping his hands, "I have got ma-lady in de box."

"Got your lady in a box—what? with the horse and the cow?" asked the doctor, who began to think monsieur was mad.

Almost frantic with bewilderment, the Frenchman ejaculated:

"Oh, sacre! De brown creatures no let me sleep at night," (meaning bronchitis.)

"Oh!" said the doctor, "the bugs bite you, eh?"

Assuming a dignified air, the Frenchman said, as he struck his breast pantomimically:

"Sare, I have got here, sare, von horse, von bad cow, and the brown creatures, and malady in de box. I ask you, sare, to cure my cow! Why for you no cure my cow?"

"Because," replied Elder—"because I am not a cow doctor."

"Yes, sare, you are sare; you cured my wife's cow."

At this minute, Dr. B——s, the editor of the ——, happening to drop in, the French man told him in French what he wanted.—They all had a hearty laugh at the barbarism of the English language, which they declared wasn't fit for a pig.

A GOOD LOVE STORY.

An Ohio paper tells the following novel story: A young couple planned an elopement, the girl descended from her room on the traditional ladder, but at the gate they were met by the father of the girl and a minister, by whom the young couple were escorted to the parlor, where, to their surprise, they found all their relatives collected for the marriage ceremonies, which took place at once. It was a neat paternal freak, but not near as neat as that of a "fond parient" we know of. He heard his daughter and her fellow plan an elopement. The next day the old man waited upon the young one, and addressed him thus:

"You're a fine, brave youth, and I don't object to you as a son-in

THE ITALIAN QUESTION.

The Italian difficulties, which for some months have been threatening the peace of Europe, and commanding the attention of the world, have not as much religious significance as most persons suppose. The movement to annex Rome and its provinces to the Italian crown, although necessarily involving the temporal supremacy of the Pope, is not a movement against the Roman Catholic faith—Pope, as many readers suppose, a contest between Protestantism and Catholicism. It is purely a political question, and a development simply of a new principle inaugurated in European politics amid the revolutions of 1849, looking to the building up of nationalities, and crushing out the numberless petty duke doms and principalities which for long years divided people of homogeneous language, faith, and habits, and impeded the march of progress. GARIBALDI and his followers, VICTOR EMANUEL and the Italian nation—indeed, all the actors in the various movements to make Rome the capital of a united Italy—are Roman Catholics, loyal to the Church, and recognize the Pope as its supreme spiritual head. They, however, hold that the legitimate office of the Pope and of the Church is to deal with ecclesiastical matters purely, and that the exercise of political power is an interpolation in the Catholic system, unnecessary to its development, and prejudicial to the Church. In these views a large majority of the Italian Bishops and Priests agree, and we notice that Archbishop PURCELL, of Cincinnati, since his return from Europe, has publicly taken similar ground. All parties, while claiming Rome for Italy, cordially agree to recognize and guaranty the spiritual supremacy of the Pope.

LOUIS NAPOLEON, now ruling France with more than despotic sway, in early life was a zealous opponent of the temporal rule of the Pope. While in exile with the Bonaparte family, he served in the ranks as a private soldier against the Papal forces, and in later years published a pamphlet taking strong ground against the Pope as a temporal ruler. After the coup d'etat by which he obtained the imperial crown, he gave himself out as the champion of nationalities, denouncing the treaties that followed the downfall of his uncle, and at an early date went to war with Austria, in support of the claims of VICTOR EMANUEL, then King of Piedmont, and ruling over a small territory and comparatively weak people. The battles of Magenta and Solferino resulted in the establishment of the Italian Kingdom, with VICTOR EMANUEL as its constitutional monarch. Close upon these events followed as ira tions for a united Italy and a determination to make Rome and the Papal provinces subject to VICTOR EMANUEL. PIUS IX. peremptorily refused to abdicate as a temporal prince, and prepared to resist all hostile efforts to dispossess him. By this time, however, LOUIS NAPOLEON, ignoring his early professions of devotion to the principle of nationality, assumed the role of dictator to Europe. He sent his soldiery to Rome to stay the progress of Italian unity, and for fifteen years the Papal power has been indebted to French bayonets for its preservation. Recently the French troops were withdrawn from Rome, and GARIBALDI and his partizans at once prepared to carry out their long cherished purposes. The occupation of Rome by French troops had become irksome and offensive to Italy, and they were withdrawn, under a treaty between NAPOLEON and VICTOR EMANUEL, by which the latter engaged to prevent any hostile movements against Rome from Italian territory without the former's assent. Upon GARIBALDI developing his purposes, LOUIS NAPOLEON demanded that these engagements by VICTOR EMANUEL be fulfilled, and at once moved French troops to Rome to the support of the Pope. The result, of course, has been the defeat of GARIBALDI and the postponement of Italy's earnest longings. What the result is to be, remains to be seen. This Italian question has for years threatened the peace of Europe, and will continue to disturb it until settled on the basis of Italian unity.

GARIBALDI, in his recent enterprise, may not have acted wisely. But the cause he represents lies close to the Italian heart, and the part VICTOR EMANUEL has been forced to play as the dupe and tool of LOUIS NAPOLEON may cost him his crown. For years LOUIS NAPOLEON made his power felt in European politics—Paris being the capital whence issued decrees involving peace or war, and where the destinies of nations were canvassed and determined. His prestige in this respect, however, has been sadly shaken during the last few years—particularly since the appearance of BISMARCK on the theatre of European politics.—Failing miserably in his attempt to "restore the Latin power" on the Western Continent, begun when the United States were engaged in a terrible civil war, and abandoned just as soon as the suppression of the rebellion left it free to demand the withdrawal of French troops from Mexico—snubbed by BISMARCK, and made the laughing-stock of Europe in the utter failure of his attempts to circumvent the plans of that bold and daring statesman—he now turns upon exhausted Italy, and arrogantly says to her people, "thus far, and no farther." This new movement, however, will not restore the broken prestige of LOUIS NAPOLEON, nor does it settle the Roman question. Sooner or later, the "imperial city" will assume its rightful position as the capital of Italy. LOUIS NAPOLEON may postpone, but cannot prevent, the inevitable march of destiny.

HOMER A. NELSON, whom the Copperheads have elected Secretary of State of New York, was a member of the 39th Congress, and was one of 16 Copperhead Representatives who voted for, and carried, the Constitutional Amendment abolishing Slavery. For a time, he was "under a cloud," but even the Cops. are constrained to approve and ratify that manly act of justice.

Ten years hence, they will be ashamed to admit that they were ever in favor of Slavery, with all its horrible practices, its infernal legislation, and its corrupting, defiling and debasing tendencies.—Gradually, the wisdom of Republican ideas, and acts, is receiving vindication from its enemies, as it is receiving homage from the humane all over the world.

THE Republicans of New York have nominated Hon. WILLIAM A. DARLING as their candidate for Mayor at the approaching municipal election. Mr. DARLING is a gentleman of irreproachable character, and would make a capital Mayor, but not such an one as would suit the "Bowery Boys" and "Dead Rabbits," and hence stands no chance of an election. Mayor HOFFMAN has been renominated by Tammany, while the Mozart faction have put up FERNANDO WOOD. The Tammany faction is the stronger, and at the recent election swept the city, the candidates of the Mozart and other Democratic factions going under. The Citizen, HALPINE'S anti-Tammany organ, charges that the Tammany men polled from ten to twelve thousand illegal votes, and thereby elected their candidates. Although WOOD represents the weaker faction, he will carry with him the whiskey element and "Dead Rabbits," and may lead HOFFMAN. Both thoroughly understand the game of ballot-stuffing, and each faction will endeavor to outdo the other in cheating. Many decent D-mocrats will refuse to vote for either, while some may vote for DARLING. But the mob element rules New York, and WOOD'S chances for the Mayoralty seem best.

The fight between WOOD and HOFFMAN will be an interesting one, and will necessarily develope some of the appliances by which the Democracy poll such enormous majorities in New York city. Col. HALPINE, of the Citizen, says:

"It is notorious, that there was an enormous illegal or "repeating" vote organized and registered in the Tammany interests at the last election—say not less than from 17,000 to 20,000 fraudulent votes—of which not less than from 10,000 to 12,000 reached the ballot-box in favor of the Tammany candidates; the remainder being either scared off by the activity and early arrests of the police, or being unable, from sheer lack of time between sunrise and sun-set, to vote in as many election districts as they were registered in—one case having been trustworthily reported to us of a man who was registered in no less than twenty-eight election districts!"

FERNANDO WOOD himself opened the campaign on Wednesday evening last, in a speech in Cooper Institute, endorsing HALPINE'S charges of fraud and corruption, and pitching into HOFFMAN in this wise:

Gentlemen: John T. Hoffman is the representative of Tammany Hall. Tammany Hall is a political institution, conceived in fraud and maintained by corruption. [Cheers, and cries of "That's so."] It has initiated a system of virtual disfranchisement of the people of New York. [Cries of "That's so."] It has refined the old way of committing frauds at elections. What I say here now I say upon my own personal responsibility, and I am personally responsible to any man who may feel aggrieved at what I say. I charge that at the late election the Tammany Hall organization imported thieves from Philadelphia to vote their ticket; that these thieves were organized in different wards of the city, and that bands of them voted in more than sixteen wards, and in more than one hundred and twenty-five electoral districts. [Cheers.] More than that, it is known that several of the inspectors of election, after receiving the ballot from the voter, substituted another ballot, and deposited it in the box. [Hisses and cries of "Shame."] And then, finally, in the canvassing itself, we have proof positive that most base frauds were committed against that honest old man, Judge Connolly, the then candidate for sheriff—[loud cheers]—frauds that would consign the perpetrators of them, their aiders and abettors, to the State prison for the balance of their natural lives. [Cheers.]

CONGRESS will meet to-morrow. Senators and Representatives were daily arriving, and it was thought a quorum in both Houses would be present. Mr. STEVENS, although in feeble health, reached Washington last week. He went from Lancaster to Philadelphia, and thence to Washington, in a special car provided for him, and suffered little from the journey. He is represented to be in buoyant spirits, and in no wise discouraged by the recent elections. The Washington correspondent of the N. Y. Herald, speaking of Mr. STEVENS, says:—"His conversation upon subjects which have long occupied his mind is broken, with frequent pauses, manifesting a great effort to confine him-elf to consecutive trains of thought. At intervals a gleam of enthusiasm passes over his mind, when he brightens up and utters sentences with vigor and emphasis, but soon relapses into a kind of intellectual torpor. Physically he is greatly emaciated and enfeebled by his recent illness. If Mr. STEVENS finds strength sufficient to enable him to attend the sessions of the coming Congress, he will be unable to take part in its proceedings, and it is the general impression that it will be his last session. Notwithstanding his enfeebled condition he uses every effort to converse with his friends and urge upon them a vigorous prosecution of the measures which have been inaugurated under his direction. As to the effect of the elections on the people, he says he feels no doubt of the continued supremacy of Radical ideas. He considers the election of a Radical President next fall as certain, and censures the controversies which have been set up in canvassing the merits of the different parties mentioned as desirable candidates."

Important financial questions, neglected by reason of the legislation incident to the problem of Reconstruction, will necessarily claim attention this winter. It is said Mr. SHERMAN has prepared a bill proposing to convert the debt, as it matures, into a long consolidated bond, running not less than thirty years, at six per cent., with one cent tax, equivalent to a five per cent loan.

OVER 70,000 "soreheads" in ALABAMA, who were registered, refused to vote at the late election, whereupon the Copperhead papers, North, raise a howl about allowing the Freedmen to control the elections in the South!

The registered Whites are a large majority in the Southern States. They are playing the game of the "dog in the manger"—are unwilling to vote themselves, or let others vote. If they choose to let the elections go by default, they must "put up" with the consequences of their folly. But it is apparent that this refusal to vote is part of a concerted effort to deceive the country as to the purport of the Reconstruction Act. Under it, the power rests with the Whites of the South; but the Freedmen are sufficiently numerous to guard themselves against being trodden under foot. For this, they are armed with the ballot, the only effective weapon. Without this, they would be insecure in every right, and would be the powerless victims of Rebel hate and revenge.

GOVERNOR Geary has commissioned J. I. Clark Hare to be President Judge of the District Court, of Philadelphia, and M. Russell Thayer as Associate Judge.

SOME months ago, the conductor of a railroad (Philadelphia and West Chester) put a colored woman off the train because she refused to sit where he directed her. The conductor was sued for assault and battery, found guilty and fined $500. As the question involved the right of Railroad officials to make a distinction in passengers, aside from sex, the case was taken to the Supreme Court, and the judgment of the Court below reversed. Judge AGNEW delivered the opinion which rules that while no one can be excluded on account of color, religious belief, political relations or prejudices, a public carrier may, in the exercise of his private right of property, separate passengers,—that it is not an unreasonable regulation to seat passengers so as to preserve order and decorum and prevent contact and collision, and if the grounds of regulation be reasonable, courts of justice cannot interfere with a carrier's right of private property. The right of a passenger is only that of being carried safely and with a due regard to his comfort and convenience, which are promoted by a sound and well regulated separation of passengers. This decision by the Supreme Court will go far to settle a question which has given a good deal of trouble to Railroad officials.

THE Cops look longingly to the U. S. Senate, but have very poor hopes of breaking the two-thirds majority of the Republicans. They have, compared with the present number, carried one in Ohio and one in California, and lost one in Tennessee. The November elections have given them little hope of defeating any Republicans whose terms expire, except probably in New Jersey, whilst the Republicans have more than an even chance of running out DIXON next spring in Connecticut, and next fall BUCKALEW of Pennsylvania, HENDRICKS of Indiana, and DOOLITTLE of Wisconsin. On the whole the Republican representation in the U. S. Senate, from the loyal States, promises to be larger in the next Congress (41st), than in the present.

THE "Chester Advertiser" has been enlarged and is now one of the most readable of our exchanges—neatly printed—thoroughly Republican, and conducted with spirit and ability. DR. WM. TAYLOR, formerly of Gettysburg, is the editor and proprietor. We wish him success in his new enterprise.

THE complete returns of the November elections as far as received, show no actual gains in the number of Democratic votes, but a heavy staying at home on the part of the Republicans. Next year the Republicans will poll their full strength, and thus be able to carry most of the States that have gone against us.

Local Items.

OUR CIRCULATION.—While the circulation of the "STAR AND SENTINEL" is already much larger than ever was attained by any paper in the county, and is being weekly increased by the addition of new names, there are still many persons in the county who do not take a county paper, some from thoughtlessness, some from false economy, and others from want of appreciation of the importance of a newspaper as a family educator. We have during the last few months added over one hundred new subscribers to our list, but should like to have the "STAR AND SENTINEL," if possible in the hands of every reader in the county. The Presidential election next year will be of great importance, and the loyal men of the nation cannot too soon being to prepare for it. It is through the press that information must be conveyed to the people, and this cannot be effectively done by sending out loads of documents just before the election, which are scarcely ever read. A paper visiting a family weekly throughout the year, naturally obtains their confidence, and in many cases influences their opinions. The principles of the Republican party are so just and so essential to the peace and prosperity of the country, that as a party we have every thing to gain by their being understood and appreciated by the people. We therefore ask the Republicans all over the county to aid in circulating the "STAR AND SENTINEL." Through a little effort by active men in each district it can be made to reach every voter in the county.

WOOD WANTED.—Those of our subscribers who expect to pay their subscriptions in Wood, will oblige us by delivering it at ONCE. Cold weather is upon us, and if delivered now we can use it advantageously.

SPECIAL COURT.—A Special Court, for the trial of Common Pleas cases, has been ordered to commence on the 9th of December.

A CURIOSITY.—Mr. D. M. SHEADS last week handed us a ripe Strawberry, of the Albany Wilson species, measuring 3½ inches in circumference—being of a second crop, grown in the open air, from plants which had borne in the usual season. Several other berries of similar size were taken from the same bed.

COLLEGE ITEMS.—A Young Mens' Christian Association has been formed at the College.—Mr. LLOYD KNIGHT has been appointed Agent to collect funds for the erection of buildings connected with the College.

ACCIDENT.—On the 12th inst., Mrs. LIGHTNER, wife of NATHANIEL LIGHTNER, of Cumberland township, whilst going to the spring tripped and fell, dislocating her left shoulder. Dr. O'NEAL was sent for, who gave the case the proper attention, and she is now getting along very well.

CASE OF CONSCIENCE.—The Superintendent of the Middle Division Pennsylvania Railroad, at Harrisburg, received Six Dollars enclosed in an anonymous letter, written in a female hand—the party stating that she had taken a child over the Road in 1861, without paying fare.

She desired the Superintendent to state the fact in this paper.

SEVERE ACCIDENT.—Mr. S. KELLER, a drover, of Somerset co., met with a serious accident on Thursday last, near Hanover, at the Railroad crossing on the McSherrystown road. The noon train for Gettysburg approaching frightened the horse he was riding, and becoming unmanageable, threw Mr. KELLER with his right foot upon the track, which the wheels of the rear car crushed in a most horrible manner. He was taken to Kohler's hotel, where the foot was amputated by Drs. SMITH and CULBERTSON.

APPLETON'S CYCLOPÆDIA.—This great Work is advertised in our columns, and is beyond question the most complete and valuable Dictionary of General Knowledge in existence. The fullness and complete eness of its articles on the history, literature, geography, &c., of this country gives it especial value. It is brought down to recent dates, and will long rank as the first of its class. We know of no issue of the American press more worthy of hearty commendation.

ELECTION.—The following gentlemen have been elected officers of the Berlin and Hanover Turnpike Company for the ensuing year:

President—William Wolf, (East Berlin.)
Directors—Jacob Young, Samuel Hollinger, Jacob Resser, Joseph E. Cromer, Daniel N. Bucher and Henry Wirt.
Secretary—Henry Wirt.
Treasurer—Jos. R. Henry, (Abbottstown.)

The Company has declared a dividend of $2 per share.

GUM SCRUBBER.—Mr. R. S. PAXTON is the Agent for Adams County for a very convenient and economical article, called the "Patent Gum Scrubber," which is rapidly finding its way into every household. It largely supersedes the drudgery of scrubbing floors, and is highly endorsed by those who have used it. See advertisement in today's paper, with certificates of the proprietors of our leading hotels, who have tested it and say that it fully answers the purpose for which it is intended.

NARROW ESCAPE.—On the 7th inst., Mr. WM. H. WANAMAKER, of Chambersburg, started for Gettysburg in his buggy, driving two horses. When he reached the summit of the South Mountain, his horses took fright, and becoming unmanageable, ran with fearful speed down the side of the mountain. As they turned the curve near the hotel of Mr. Henry Cornwell, they ran into another machine coming up the hill, in which were an old lady and a little boy. The pole of his buggy struck the horse (belonging to Mr. Robert Black, of Greenwood), in the groin, inflicting an injury from which he is not likely to recover.—Mr. W. was thrown over the dasher of his buggy upon the turnpike. The other carriage was upset, and its inmates were thrown out. Fortunately none of them were seriously injured.

PROPERTY SALES.—Adam C. Musselman, Esq., Trustee, has sold part of the property of Henry Wortz, deceased, 11 acres 65 perches, to Mrs. Margaret Donaldson for $405. George M. Wortz, one of the heirs, took the home property at a valuation of $30 per acre.

Daniel King has sold two houses and lots in Fairfield, on Main street—one to E. W. Harbaugh for $400, the other to Jacob L. Fryor for $800.

Adam C. Musselman, Esq., has also sold 4 acres of land, more or less, adjoining Fairfield, to Daniel King for $750.

The Heirs of Frederick Stocksleger, dec'd, have sold the Mill property, including 12 acres, to Isaiah Stocksleger and John Nary for $4,050; the Mansion Farm, in Franklin township—230 acres—to A. F. & I. J. Stocksleger for $10,745, being $46 50 per acre; 190 acres of the Farm in Highland township, with buildings, to John Hartman for $7,030, being $37 per acre, and 80 acres of the same tract to John Cover for $2,720, being $34 per acre. The aggregate of the sales is $24,545, being the largest sale yet made this season.

James Wilson has sold his house and lot of ground, with shop, on West Middle street, Gettysburg, to Henry Felty for $1,350.

Joseph Mannock has purchased, from the Administrator of Dr. Eckert, the house and lot on the corner of East Middle and Stratton streets, in this place, at $400 cash.

Alex. Jacobs has sold his property, in New Oxford, to Cornelius Miller, at $8,200—not $1,275, as previously stated.

SABBATH-SCHOOL CONVENTION.—To-morrow the friends of the Sabbath School cause will not forget the Convention, to be held in this place next week. The exercises promise to be unusually interesting, and from the programme prepared by the Committee and the high reputation of the gentlemen who have signified their purpose to participate, the public may expect a series of interesting and profitable meetings. Rev. ALFRED TAYLOR, Ex-Gov. POLLOCK, Hon. Dr. WILLITTS, Rev. T. A. FERNLY, and J. A. GARDNER, Esq., (all of Philadelphia,) are earnest Sabbath School workers, and all of them are well and favorably known to the public. The first session of the Convention will be held Monday evening next, and the exercises be continued through Tuesday and Wednesday, under the following programme, viz:

Monday evening, Nov. 25, at 6½ o'clock, Introductory Address by Rev. C. A. HAY, D. D.; Organization of the Convention; Address by J. A. GARDNER, Esq.—subject, Origin and Object of Sabbath Schools; Blackboard exercises by Rev. ALFRED TAYLOR.

Tuesday, 10 A. M.—Address by Ex-Gov. POLLOCK—subject, Bible Classes; Lesson on Blackboard by Rev. A TAYLOR; Discussion, How to retain the older scholars in school.

Tuesday afternoon, 2 P. M.—Children's meeting—Address by Rev. THOMAS A. FERNLY, Ex-Gov. POLLOCK Rev. A. A. WILLITTS, D. D., and others.

Tuesday evening, 6½ P. M.—Address by Rev. A A WILLITTS, D. D.—subject, New feature of S. S. Instruction; Model Infant School lessons by Rev. A. TAYLOR Discussion, What helps can we best use in preparing S. S. lessons?

Wednesday morning, 10 A. M.—Address by Rev. A TAYLOR—subject, Sacred Geography; Blackboard exercise by J. A. GARDNER; Discussion, Should schools in the country be kept open the whole year?

Wednesday evening, 6½ P. M.—a dress by Rev. THOS A. FERNLY—subject, Power of Sabbath Schools; Report of the Secretary; Discussion, How can we best cultivate a spirit of Christian benevolence in the Sabbath School

In all discussions in the Convention, the speeches will be limited to five minutes, thus affording opportunity for a general expression of views.

A few minutes at the opening of each session will be occupied by devotional exercises, and the proceedings will be varied by appropriate and popular Sabbath School music.

While the friends of the Sabbath School cause and the public generally are earnestly invited to attend and participate in the exercises of the Convention, it is especially desirable that every Sabbath School in the county be fully represented, and prepared to furnish the statistical information requisite to an intelligent view of the cause in the county.

The Convention will be held in Christ Church, Chambersburg street. the Council and Trustees having generously offered their church for the occasion. The exercises of the opening session on Monday evening will be accompanied by vocal music by a select choir.

ODD FELLOWSHIP.—The Grand Lodge of the United States, at its last session, made an important change in the working of the Order, in regard to members suspended for non-payment of dues. The following resolutions were adopted, to have "the full force and effect of positive law," and binding on the entire jurisdiction, viz:

Resolved, That it shall not be legal to expel or suspend members of this order for non-payment of dues.

Resolved, That any member of a subordinate Lodge or Encampment of this order failing to pay his regular dues, as required by the by laws of such subordinate, until the arrears thereof, exclusive of fines & assessments, are equal in amount to one years dues, shall be held to have voluntarily resigned his membership in such subordinate and shall be dropped from the roll thereof, and he shall rank in the order, from and after such dropping from the roll as an Ancient Odd Fellow; provided, however, that no member shall be thus dropped while under charges of misconduct.

Resolved, That any person thus dropped may be readmitted to membership, either in his former subordinate or any other of the jurisdictions of this order, subject to the general and local laws regarding residence, upon application, in the same manner as may be required of a candidate for initiation; and he shall pay an admission fee, in no case to exceed the customary initiation fee provided for by the laws of the subordinate to which such application may be made; and he shall take such rank only in his subordinate as he may prove himself entitled to.

Resolved, That the provisions of these resolutions shall apply to all persons heretofore suspended, expelled or dropped from membership for non-payment of dues, and for no other cause, and to members of defunct subordinate lodges and encampments.

ADVERTISING SALES PROPERTY.—The Lancaster Intelligencer, in speaking of the importance and great advantage of advertising sales of property in the newspapers, in addition to having handbills printed, very truthfully says: "A newspaper is read by hundreds who never see the attractive bills which are posted in the taverns and the store rooms. Every subscriber to a county paper reads all such advertisements carefully. He knows who is selling out and exactly what is offered for sale. The advertisements are a topic of conversation when friends meet, and arrangements are made for attending sales.—The result is a large crowd, spirited bidding, and a realization of ten, twenty or fifty times of what it cost to advertise. No money is so sure to return a large profit as that spent on printer's ink. A single additional bidder on a single article will pay all it costs to advertise a sale of personal property in a newspaper. Is it not strange, then, that any one should fail to advertise? Let our friends think of the matter."

COURT.—The November Court is in session, but little business of general interest having been done up to the hour of going to press. In the case of Com. vs. Isaac Kane, convicted of horse-stealing at August term, a new trial has been granted.

On Monday, on motion of D. MCCONAUGHY, Esq., JOHN M. KRAUTH, after a creditable examination in open Court, was admitted to the Bar.

The notice of the Exhibition at Boyd's School House, came to hand too late for to-day's issue.

THE LOCAL PAPER.—The following well told truth is from the Chicago Republican: "Whether the people will or not, the local paper is their representative abroad, their ambassador in foreign parts, by which they must be judged. Let them then take a patriotic interest in giving it news, co-operation and patronage. Like every other duty performed, it will pay in the long run."

An intelligent correspondent gives the following account of public sentiment in South Western Virginia:

"The Radical white element is confined entirely to the poor laboring classes and mechanics. It is folly to attempt to win the rich ruling men, who are nearly all disloyal and malignant in their hatred of the Federal Government—more so than when the war was waged. In the counties I have visited I have found nearly all the poor men ready to unite with our leagues and vote with the Radicals. we can secure the vote of the ten Southern States in the next Presidential election if we labor for it and are supported as we ought to be. There never was such a field opened to the philanthropist as there is now offered in the South. Our poor white and colored population are true to the Federal Government, and only need educating to give their influence in favor of loyalty and freedom."

A LADY in Wisconsin plunged into a millpond to save two boys from drowning. Her crinoline floated her, and, clinging to that, the boys were kept above water, and the whole party drifted safely to the shore.

FOREIGN NEWS.

LONDON, Nov. 14.—Late despatches from Italy state that the feeling against the French troops has reached a perfect furore. The authorities have taken precautions to prevent another outbreak, which is imminent, and more French troops have been despatched from Toulon for Civita Vecchia. The King and Menabrea are very unpopular. Ratazzi has joined the radicals. The King has called out the reserves and ordered the formation of three large camps. Garibaldi is still in prison.

POPE Pius has given the French officers, the Emperor, and France, his blessing for the assistance rendered him in his late hour of peril. While bestowing this blessing, he took occasion to feel aggrieved at Victor Emmanuel, who had such "a vanguard of anarchists with flags of rapine and devastation."

LONDON, Nov. 15.—The cabinet have resolved to place all the telegraph lines of Great Britain under the direction of the Post office Department.

LONDON, November 16.—The Pope objects to the conference. The Powers are divided on the subject. It is said only Spain will support the temporal power.

PARIS, November 17.—The troops of the French expeditionary corps in Italy are making preparations to go into winter quarters at Civitia Vecchia.

NAPLES, November 14.—Mount Vesuvius is in volcanic action, and indicative of a fearful eruption. New craters have been formed, and red-hot stones and lava ejected in great quantities, while a pillar of flame was given forth, the surrounding earth being in a tremulous motion.

The first eruption of the more serious kind from Mount Vesuvius occurred in the year 79, when the elder Pliny perished, and the then vast cities of Herculaneum, Pompeii and Stabig were overwhelmed by the burning torrent and buried in lava and ashes thrown from the crater.

Forty-nine eruptions of Vesuvius occurred from that disastrous period to the year 1850, of which the most celebrated in history took place in the years 472, 1779, 1794, 1819, 1834 and 1839.

HAVANA, Nov. 14.—Tortola, one of the British West India Islands, containing an area of forty-eight square miles, has been completely submerged by the flood following upon the great gale of the 7th instant, and it is reported that ten thousand lives have been lost. Every living thing, man or animal upon it perished.

A terrible hurricane had visited the southern portion of the island of Porto Rico, destroying all the crops. Two hundred lives were lost, and four thousand families are destitute.

All the towns have been terribly desolated One thousand have been severely damaged.—In some instances the houses along entire streets have been demolished, and the roadway entirely hidden by the ruins.

STILL LATER.—Our readers will be pleased to hear that there has been another decline in the prices of Dry Goods during the past week. Messrs. Duphorn & Hoffman being in the city at the time of the decline, have bought a large stock of goods which they are now selling at prices which will compete with those of the city. Now is your time to buy.

EDITORS' BOOK TABLE.

PETERSON'S MAGAZINE for December, is a capital number, with two steel engravings, a mammoth fashion plate, a colored pattern in Berlin work, and nearly fifty woodcuts of braiding and other patterns, and late fashions. The Publisher says, that in 1867, "Peterson's Magazine had more subscribers than all the other Ladies' Magazines combined." The stories are by the very best writers, and are written originally for Peterson. About a thousand pages of reading will be given in 1868, when the Magazine will be greatly improved. The terms will however remain two dollars a year, to single subscribers. To clubs it is cheaper still, viz: five copies for $8, eight copies for $12, or fourteen copies for $20: astonishingly low. To every person getting up a club (at the rates) the Publisher will send an extra copy gratis. Specimens sent—if written for—to those wishing to get up clubs. Address, post-paid, CHARLES J. PETERSON, 306 Chestnut street, Philadelphia.

THE ILLUSTRATED ANNUAL OF PHRENOLOGY AND PHYSIOGNOMY FOR 1868 contains a rich collection of original and timely articles, among which are the MARRIAGE OF COUSINS, and the effects; Advancement of Phrenology; Circassia, and the Circassians; Jealousy—Its Cause and Cure; George Peabody; Senator Wilson; D'Israeli; Peter Cartwright; Victor Hugo; Miss Braddon; How to Become a Phrenologist; Monsieur Tonson, with 12 Illustrations; Mind Limited by Matter; Two Paths of Womanhood, Illustrated; Bismarck; To Phrenological Students; Phrenology and its Uses. The whole profusely illustrated; pp. 84. Price, 25 cts. Address S. R. WELLS, 389 Broadway, Office Phrenological Journal, New York.

OUR YOUNG FOLKS.—This popular Magazine for Boys and Girls presents a very attractive table of contents for November.—Doctor Hayes furnishes an exciting new chapter on "Cast Away in the Cold;" Mrs. Diaz gives two more capital "Letters from William Henry to his Grandmother;" Gail Hamilton writes of "Jamie Again." These and other excellent stories and poems, all profusely illustrated, make this number of "Our Young Folks" one of the best ever issued.

The Publishers present an imposing array of attractions to readers of "Our Young Folks" for 1868. CHARLES DICKENS has written expressly for this Magazine "A Holiday Romance," which will appear in early numbers, with illustrations by the greatest of English designers, John Gilbert. The Author of "John Halifax" will contribute several articles in prose and verse.—Dr. Hayes will finish his capital story, "Cast Away in the Cold." Mrs. Stowe will continue to write sketches like those which have made her so popular with the readers of "Our Young Folks." And hosts of other good writers will help make "Our Young Folks" constantly attractive and useful. The Publishers say: "It will be seen that OUR YOUNG FOLKS for 1868 has something for its patrons in every juvenile department; Romance, History, Fiction, Fact, Poetry, Prose, Fancy, Science, Music, Art, and Amusement, and it must continue to be as it now is, A Household Necessity and Delight." It is only $2.00 a year. Clubs get it at reduced rates, and Premiums are offered for new subscribers. Send to TICKNOR & FIELDS, Boston.

SCHENCK'S SEAWEED TONIC.

This medicine, invented by DR. J. H. SCHENCK, of Philadelphia, is intended expressly for those and many other complaints of a dyspeptic character, and for the relief of debilitating feelings of the stomach with which Sick Headache, Nausea, Vomiting, Flatulency, Costiveness, Loss of Appetite, Impure Blood, &c., are usually accompanied, and for which no remedy has before been offered. Being composed entirely of vegetable ingredients, it will be safely taken by persons of the most delicate constitution, without reducing the system, and will be found to operate in the most agreeable manner. Before using it, it will be necessary to take a dose of SCHENCK'S MANDRAKE PILLS, to prepare the stomach to receive the Tonic, so that it may be digested.

Consumption cannot be cured by Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup unless the stomach and liver is made healthy and the appetite restored. Hence the Tonic and Pills are required in nearly every case of consumption. A half dozen bottles of the SEAWEED TONIC and three or four boxes of the MANDRAKE PILLS will cure any ordinary case of dyspepsia.

Dr. Schenck makes professional visits in New York, Boston, and at his Principal Office in Philadelphia every week. He can be consulted at each place, or his pamphlet, containing directions for visitation.

Physicians are often puzzled to know whether the two diseases of the patient, one being in the last stage of consumption, and the other as near to it, is in perfect health are on the Government service.

Sold by druggists and Dealers, price $1.50 per bottle, or $7.50 the half dozen. All letters for advice should be addressed to Dr. Schenck's Principal Office, No. 15 North 6th street, Philadelphia, Pa.

THE ADAMS COUNTY TEACHER'S INSTITUTE

Will meet in the Public School Building, New Oxford, at 10 o'clock A. M., on Monday, November 25th. The evening sessions will be held in the Lutheran Church.—The exercises will consist of Lectures, Addresses, Reports, Essays, Class Drills, Discussions, &c.

Supt. Wickersham and Deputy Supt. Coburn, of the State Department, Dr. Brown and Prof. Ehrhart of Gettysburg, Dr. Pfeiffer, of New Oxford, Prof. Brooks, of the Millersville Normal School, Prof. Thompson, of Lancaster, Prof. S. S. Boyd, of York, S. S. Jack, Esq., of Westmoreland county and others, have been engaged for the occasion. An interesting and profitable meeting is expected; hence a full attendance is desired.

According to Act of Assembly, approved April 9th, 1867, "a Teacher's Institute must be held in each county of the Commonwealth, and must continue in session at least five days, including a half day for going and a half day for returning." The above act also authorizes directors to grant teachers the time, and makes it binding upon teachers to attend. The Committee on permanent certificates, required by law, will be elected on Monday afternoon. The citizens of New Oxford have kindly proposed to entertain as many of the teachers as possible in private families. The usual reduction will be made at the hotels. Arrangements have been made with the several railroad companies for a reduction of fare to all who may attend. All who wish to go by railroad must be here by 2:30 on the morning of the 25th. Directors of Schools and the friends of Education generally are cordially invited.

EXTRACT OF A LETTER FROM BARON SOLOMON ROTHSCHILD

PARIS, 5th April, 1864, 25 Rue Faubg, St. Honore.

Will you be kind enough to have forwarded to me here 200 bottles of your Indian Liniment: it you will send at once to my address, I will forward you the amount the moment I receive the account. BELMONT & Co., New York.

BARON SOLOMON ROTHSCHILD having recommended to his many visitors Major L. LYON'S INDIAN LINIMENT, and they being desirous to procure it, he should advise him to establish a depot in Paris.

THE INDIAN LINIMENT,

as a relief, ever ready; as a killer of pain taken inwardly, or outwardly applied has no equal. For the relief and cure of Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Sprains, Spraining, Bruises, &c., it is unequalled. It is also most efficacious, taken inwardly, in the cure of Colera, Cramps and Pains in the Stomach, Sick Headache, Colic, Sudden Attacks, Cholera Infantum, &c., and is without exception the most wonderful Panacea the world affords. No family should be without it. Every TRAVELLER should have a bottle. MINERS and FARMERS residing at a distance from Physicians should keep it constantly on hand. In case of accidents and sudden attacks of Stomach Complaints, its value cannot be estimated. Imported by Major LANE'S INDIAN LINIMENT, and sold by other druggists. Principal Office, No. 6 CLIFF st., New York, and retail by Demas Barnes & Co., 21 Park Row, New Store with Pipe & Robinson, 186 Greenwich st., New York; C. NEW FIRM! AT THE OLD STAND.

[ESTABLISHED IN 1817.]

I have associated with me, in business, my son, JOHN F. McCREARY, under the firm and style of D. McCREARY & SON, and I desire to say to my old friends and the public generally that since the war the manufacture of Saddles, Harness, Collars, &c., has been revived at the old established and well known stand on Baltimore street one square south of the Court House, Gettysburg, Pa.

Having had an experience of 40 years in this establishment, I feel assured, that, with renewed attention to business, we can still further merit and receive a full share of public patronage.

Feb. 1, 1866. DAVID McCREARY.

With increased facilities for conducting our business, we are better prepared than ever to satisfy the wants of all those who may need anything in our line. We especially call the attention of Farmers and others to the superior quality of our Miscellaneous.

500 MILES

OF THE

Union Pacific Railroad,

RUNNING WEST FROM OMAHA

ACROSS THE CONTINENT,

ARE NOW COMPLETED.

THE Union Pacific Railroad Company have built a longer line of railroad in the last eighteen months than was ever built by any other company in the same time, and they will continue the work with the same energy until it is completed. The Western Division is being pushed rapidly eastward from Sacramento by the Central Pacific Company of California, and it is expected that to the Pacific will be open for business in 1870. MORE THAN ONE-THIRD OF THE WORK HAS ALREADY BEEN DONE, MORE THAN ONE-THIRD OF THE WHOLE LINE IS COMPLETED AND RUNNING ORDER, AND MORE LABORERS ARE NOW EMPLOYED UPON IT THAN EVER BEFORE. More than have already been expended by the two powerful companies that have undertaken the enterprise, and there is no lack of funds for its most vigorous prosecution. When the United States Government found it necessary to secure the construction of the Union Pacific Railroad, to develop and protect its interests, it gave the Companies authorized to build it such ample aid as should render its speedy completion beyond a doubt. The available means of the Union Pacific Railroad Company, derived from the Government and its own stockholders, may be briefly summed up as follows:

THE ENTIRE GRAND LINE

1.—UNITED STATES BONDS

Having thirty years to run and bearing six per cent. currency interest at the rate of $16,000 per mile for 517 miles on the Plains; then at the rate of $48,000 per mile for 150 miles through the Rocky Mountains; then at the rate of $32,000 per mile for the remaining distance, for which the United States takes a second lien as security. The interest on these bonds unpaid by the United States government, which also pays the company one-half the amount of its bills in money for transporting its freight, troops, mails, &c. The remaining half of these bills is placed to the company's credit, and forms a sinking fund which may finally discharge the whole amount of this lien.—The claims against the government since April of the current year amount to four and one-half times this interest.

2.—FIRST MORTGAGE BONDS.

By its charter the Company is permitted to issue its own First Mortgage Bonds to the same amount as the bonds issued by the government, and no more, and only as the road progresses. The Trustees for the bondholders are the Hon. E. D. Morgan, U. S. Senator from New York, and the Hon. Oakes Ames, Member of U. S. House of Representatives, who are responsible for the delivery of these bonds to the Company in strict accordance with the terms of the law.

3.—THE LAND GRANT.

The Union Pacific Railroad Company has a land grant or absolute donation from the government of 12,800 acres to the mile on the line of the road, which will be worth less than $1 50 per acre at the lowest valuation.

4.—THE CAPITAL STOCK.

The authorized capital of the Union Pacific Railroad Company is $100,000,000, of which over $5,000,000 have been paid on the work already done.

THE MEANS SUFFICIENT TO BUILD THE ROAD.

Contracts for the entire work of building 914 miles of first-class railroad west from Omaha, comprising much of the most difficult mountain work, and embracing every expense except superintending, have been made with responsible parties (who have already finished over 500 miles), at the average rate of sixty-eight thousand and fifty-eight dollars ($68,058) per mile. This price includes all necessary shops for construction and repairs of cars, depots, stations and all other incidental buildings, and also locomotives, passenger, baggage, and freight cars, and other requisite rolling-stock, in an amount that shall not be less than $5,000 per mile. Allowing the cost of the remaining 200 hundred and eighty-six of the eleven hundred miles assumed to be built by the Pacific Company to be $90,000 per mile.

The Total Cost of Eleven Hundred Miles will be as follows:

914 miles, at $68,058	$62,205,012
186 miles, at $90,000	16,740,000
Add discounts on bonds, surveys, &c	4,500,000
Amount	$83,445,012

As the U. S. Bonds are equal to money, and the Company's own First Mortgage Bonds have a ready market we have as the

Available Cash Resources for Building Eleven Hundred Miles:

U. S. Bonds	$25,920,000
First Mortgage Bonds	29,920,000
Capital Stock paid in on the work now done	5,200,250
Land Grant, 14,080,000 acres, at $1 50 per acre	21,120,000
Total	$82,145,750

The company have ample facilities for supplying any deficiency that may arise in means for constructing. This may be done wholly or in part by additional subscription to capital stock.

Active inquiry has already been made for a portion of these lands, and arrangements are now proposed to offer part of them for sale. While their whole value will not be available or some years to come, they will remain a very important source of revenue to the Company. The lands of the Illinois Central Railroad Company are selling at from $6 to $12 per acre, and other land-grant companies in the West are receiving equal prices for similar properties.

FUTURE BUSINESS.

The most sceptical have never expressed a doubt that when the Union Pacific Railroad is finished the immense business that must flow over it, as the only railroad connecting the two grand divisions of the North American continent, will be one of the wonders of railway transportation: and as it will have no competitor it can always charge remunerative rates.

EARNINGS FROM WAY BUSINESS.

During the quarter ending July 31, an average of 325 miles of the Union Pacific Railroad was in operation.—The Superintendent's Report shows the following result EARNINGS.

Passengers, Freight, Telegraph and Mails	$723,755 54
Transportation of Contractors' Material and Men	479,283 41
Total	$1,203,038 95

EXPENSES.

Fuel, Repairs, Offices, Conductors, Trains, &c.	$395,530 92
Net Earnings to balance	807,508 03
Total	$1,203,038 95

The net operating expenses on the commercial business for the quarter were $357,966. On account for the COMMERCIAL BUSINESS stands as follows:

Earnings for May, June and July	$723,755 54
Expenses	357,966 50
Net Profit	$365,789 04

The amount of Bonds the Company can issue on 325 miles, at $16,000 per mile, is $5,200,000. Interest in gold, three months, at 6 per cent., on this sum, is $78,000; add 40 per cent. premium, to correspond with currency earnings, is $140,200—showing that the net earnings for this quarter were more than four times the interest on the First Mortgage Bonds on this length of road.

FIRST MORTGAGE BONDS,

whose principal is so amply provided for, and whose interest is so thoroughly secured, must be classed among the safest investments. They pay

SIX PER CENT. IN GOLD, and are offered for the present at NINETY CENTS ON THE DOLLAR, and accrued interest at Six Per Cent. in Currency from July 1.

Many parties are taking advantage of the present high price of Government stocks, to exchange for these Bonds, which are over FIFTEEN PER CENT. CHEAPER, and, at the current rate of premium on gold pay

* OVER NINE PER CENT. INTEREST.

Subscriptions will be received in Gettysburg, by Geo. A. Cooke & Co., Bankers; in Philadelphia, by Cashier of the Second National Bank and First National Bank, and in New York at the Company's Office, No. 20 Nassau street, and by

The Association have appointed as Receivers, Messrs. GEORGE A. COOKE & CO., 33 South Third street, Philadelphia, whose well-known integrity and business experience will be a sufficient guarantee that the money intrusted to them will be promptly applied to the purpose stated.

PHILADELPHIA, PA., May 20, 1867.

To the Officers and Members of the Washington Library Co., N. S. READ, Secretary.

GENTLEMEN:—On receipt of your favor of the 15th inst., notifying us of our appointment as Receivers for your Company, we took the liberty to submit a copy of your Charter, with a plan of your enterprise to eminent legal authority, and having received his favorable opinion in regard to its legality, and sympathizing with the benevolent object of your Association, viz: the education and maintenance of the orphan children of our soldiers and sailors of the Riverside Institute, we have concluded to accept the trust, and to use our best efforts to promote so worthy an object.

Respectfully, yours, &c.,

GEO. A. COOKE & CO.,

JUST PUBLISHED,

NEW WORK ON SINGING.

BASSINI'S

Twenty Melodic Exercises,

IN FORM OF

SOLFEGGIOS FOR SOPRANO OR MEZZO SOPRANO VOICES,

INTENDED AS

Studies to acquire the Art of Singing.

"These exercises were composed to be used simultaneously with his system, "THE ART OF SINGING," or with any other method for the cultivation of the voice, and will take the place of CONCONE'S SOLFEGGIOS; being more melodious and better adapted for teaching.

"Some of these exercises are specially beautiful as well as useful, a mingling of the dulce et utile, which secures the interest as well as the improvement of the student. The various styles developed in these exercises render them invaluable in an educational point of view, as they tend to enlarge the intelligence and the appreciation, and at the same time form the taste of the pupil. They must be studied carefully with reference to the innumerable marks of expression and forms of ornamentation. Upon the minute accuracy
